O'CONNELL'S PLEA FOR PARDON ADDS MYSTERY TO STIELOW MURDER CASE

and convicted, received word from Pardon Clerk Porter of Albion that the application was on file in the Governor's office. Mr. Porter asked Judge Dowd for a report on the case.

O'CONNELL'S ORIGINAL ACCU-SATION OF KING.

Judge Dowd recalled that O'Connell, after his conviction and sentence, signed a confession. He looked up the confession and found that it implicated King and co-conspirators of the Hall was in doing time in Auburn.
A copy of the confession follows:

COUNTY COURT, CATTARAUGUS
COUNTY.
The People of the State of New York, ss.:
I, Roy Hall,
State of New York,
County of Cattaraugus:

do hereby depose and say: I am the defendant jointly indicted with Roy Hall for assault committed upon the 24th day of September, 1914, in the town of Randolph. This assault was committed substantially as testified to by Lewis H. Brown at my trial, except that the man who accompanied me and who took part in the crime with me was Irving King. Roy Hall was not present at the time and had no part in or knowledge of the crime; said Irving King and myself came to Little Valley from the "Five Mile" the morning of Sept. 24, 1914; drove from Little Valley to East Randolph, to Randolph; there at Volentine Church we met John Hall; after the shooting we all three drove to John Hall's home in South Valley. I, with Irving King and John Hall, drove on to Jamestown; from there King and I took the train back to Jamestown. My wife and my mother never knew the facts herein stated. Irving King has frequently threatened to shoot me if I told the truth and fear of him has kept me from doing it.

CLARENCE O'CONNELL

Sworn to before me this 18th day of November, 1915.

DARWIN W. CONGDON,
Justice of the Peace.

The assault upon Brown and the murder of Mr. Phelps and Miss Wolcott were crimes identical in method.
Two men held up Brown, one knocked him down and when he resisted the other shot him with a revolver. The robbers left him for dead after taking money and valuables from his person.

O'Connell was arrested with Hall in the Brown case shortly after the murder of Mr. Phelps and Miss Wolcott, which occurred on March 21, 1915. Stielow was already in custody on the charge of murdering the pair.
It will be noted that the confession of O'Connell, implicating King, was signed on Nov. 15, 1915.

Here was a direct accusation against King. Nevertheless, King was not arrested. The authorities did not interfere with him in any way until after Mrs. Humiston, the New York lawyer, came up to Cattaraugus County and King confessed to her that he and O'Connell killed Mr.
Phelps and Miss Wolcott.

The confession to Mrs. Humiston was made at Little Valley in Catta-raugus County. Immediately it was made public District Attorney Knickerbocker of Orleans County jumped over to Cattaraugus County, and with due authority of law conveyed King to the comfortable quarters he now occupies in the Albion Jail. There it was King repudiated his confession.

Within two days Charles Laskey and his wife, Clara, of West Shelby, who signed affidavits for Mrs. Humiston corroborating certain important features of King's confession and later repudiated them, have made new affidavits reiterating their original statements and adding some interesting details of their experience with District Attorney Knickerbocker. They swear that they were taken with their two sons, Clarence and Frank, to Niagara Falls and were there questioned by District Attorney Knickerbocker and Detective George W. Newton, who arrested Stielow and got $5,000 for helping to convict him.

CONFESION, RECAPITULATION AND REITERATION.

Here are their new affidavits telling of their experience:

COUNTY.

The People of the State of New York, ss:

Charles Frederick Stielow,
State of New York,
County of Niagara, ss:

City of Lockport.

Charles Laskey, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That on Aug. 20, 1915, I made a statement in the above entitled matter, at some later date I made a statement for Mr. Knickerbocker, the District Attorney of Orleans County, at Niagara Falls, N. Y., the contents of the latter statement I do not now recall, as I had been called away from home with out my supper and taken to some office, and it was then late in the evening, 9 or 10 o'clock, and I was anxious to get home, having been threatened with arrest. I made such statements as I thought would satisfy their requirements.
Since making this statement to Mr. Knickerbocker I have thought matter over and felt anxious to have the statement made to Mrs. Humiston and Attorney White read to me, and I therefore asked that the original statement be brought to my house.

After hearing the said statement read by William J. Hooper of Lockport, I satisfy and confirm the said statements therein contained with the exception that Clarence O'Connell did not return the light spring wagon to my barn or premises the night stated and as therein stated.

Dependent further says that O'Connell's horse was not killed in his presence, but I helped bury the horse. O'Connell did have a 22 calibre revolver while at my house and wanted to trade for a shotgun. I had a shotgun which belonged to my brother. I would not trade with him.

Dependent further says that while at said office at Niagara Falls and at various other times and places I was told that I would have to talk, and that unless I did tell what I knew about the Phelps' murder and about one

Clarence O'Connell and Edwin King that I would be pinned in Jail, and I was further told that unless I talked I would be taken to the Illinois Jail.

There was present at Niagara Falls, besides District Attorney Knickerbocker, Detective Newton, five or six other persons who came in two automobiles. I was also told that Mrs. Humiston was going to get me into State Prison and that I was to keep away from her and not talk, and if she came to the house to lock her out; they said they had the right of the house and they asked me if I knew Clarence O'Connell and Edwin King, and they said they were helping them out of trouble.
There was present, besides my wife and two sons, Clarence and Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brock-away, Cora Fuller and Mr. Whitney.

Clara Laskey, being duly sworn, deposes and says that she is the wife of Charles Laskey and resides in the City of Lockport, and has heard the statement of her husband read, and that the statements therein contained are true.
That she was present at various times and occasions and heard the conversations therein referred to. That dependent was also told that if she did not talk that she would be taken to the jail at Albion and kept there until she did talk; that the Knickerbocker party told her that Mrs. Humiston was running her into State's the house to lock the doors.

An interesting side light on how Newton, the $5,000 private detective, got the "confession" from Stielow upon which the friendless half-wit was convicted is shown in the following affidavits made by a member of the Buffalo police force who helped Newton "work up" the case against Stielow:

COUNTY.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, ss:

CHARLES FREDERICK
STIELOW.

State of New York,
County of Erie, ss:

City of Buffalo.

Charles Sparacino, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a patrolman in the Police Department of the City of Buffalo, N. Y., and resides at No. 25 Onondaga Street, in said City of Buffalo, N. Y.; that he was in the employ of George W.
Newton at the time of the arrest of one Charles Frederick Stielow, for the murder of Mr. Phelps, and had been for nearly two years prior to said date; that the 23d day of April, 1915, George W. Newton and Robert Wilson, as per their telephone instructions, met dependent at Medina depot and there instructed me to go to Albion and that they would meet me at Albion trolley station; that at a given signal I would follow Mr.
Newton to where he would go; that upon arrival at Albion I followed Mr. Newton to the Albion Prison, where I met Sheriff Bartlett and Under Sheriff Porter, also Deputy Sheriff Rice; that Newton instructed me as follows, in presence of above mentioned persons, viz: "You go in the jail and rope this fellow because I know you.
He's a big farmer and you can get it out of him."

Dependent further states that immediately Sheriff Bartlett took him downstairs to the first floor, opened a door on the right side of the prison, where Stielow was confined, opened a cell door, pushing dependent in and having dependent roughly, saying, "Get in there you big ———, you'll tell me

CINCO CIGARS

Now Five Cents Straight

Owing to the increased cost of production, the manufacturers of CINCO Cigars, OTTO EISENLOH & BROS., INCORPORATED, have advanced their selling price to the dealers, and, in future, this cigar will be sold to the consumer absolutely at five cents straight, instead of six for a quarter, as heretofore.

The CINCO Cigar has attained a national reputation, and, through the maintenance of a high standard of quality, has become the largest seller in the world, and the manufacturers deemed it advisable to advance the price rather than sacrifice its long-established high quality.

who was with you?" stomached cold and left me with Stielow; that all the above was prearranged between Sheriff Bartlett, Newton, and myself to improve and Stielow.

Dependent further states that part of the arrangement was that dependent should act as if he were under the influence of liquor. Important states that at this time and in the hallway just outside the cell Sheriff Bartlett and dependent, by prearrangement, entered into a snuff, which Stielow could possibly hear, and dependent used profane language, loud talk and acted as though he was drunk.
This was merely a pretext on the part of dependent all arranged by Sheriff Bartlett and Detective Newton. When dependent entered cell in the above machine dependent noticed that Stielow was at extreme end of corridor in a stupefied position. He did not speak.
After a while I started cursing and swearing, same being my protext to impress Stielow that I was a criminal and he for the inducement of liquor. I then said to Stielow:
"What the hell are you in here for?" carrying the rough stuff through Stielow answered, "For nothing;" then I said "What in hell would they keep you in here for nothing?" and Stielow did not answer, and after that Stielow did not talk that night. That same night they took Stielow out of his cell and after he was brought back dependent was brought out for a conference with Sheriff Bartlett, Newton, Wilson and Porter. On that night or the next day Newton told me that Stielow had requested that he be locked up in his cell, as he was frightened of dependent, Newton saying "What do you think of that big bug for big body?" He asked to be locked in his cell, he was afraid of you." Newton was laughing when he said this.

SUPREME COURT, ORLEANS COUNTY.

York, ss:

State of New York,
County of Erie, ss:

City of Buffalo.

Charles Sparacino, being duly
sworn, deposes and says: That on or about April 25, 1915, while in the employ of George W. Newton, and confined in the Orleans County Jail at Albion, New York, for the purpose of obtaining information relative to the Philip-Walcott murder case, and during a conference with him, Mr. Newton said to me, "Now I want you to find out where the gun that committed the murder and the money is," and I said, "How can I approach him on the gun proposition?" Mr. Newton said, "I told him that as long as he did not pull the trigger and do the actual killing or search the drawers and take the money, he was not the guilty man." At the same time it impressing with him the finger the act of pulling a trigger, and I said, "Wouldn't he be an accomplice to the murder?" Mr. Newton said, "The fool don't know that much. Why, Stielow would tell me anything; we will have the whole d-d family, Mrs. Grey and all, in jail before they know it.
He (Stielow) doesn't know that Newton Green is locked up. We have got a statement from Green in which he admits everything, whom holding behind the oak tree.
Now you get Stielow to tell where he buried the money and the gun, because I told him that if he told the truth he could go home Sunday, as he is not the guilty man.

and, just think, the ——— fool thinks he will be a deputy sheriff, or a constable, where you or I could give him a punch and he would fall to pieces. He would make a fine constable. Now, you go in and try to find where this money is."

When I entered the cell I tried to get an admission from Stielow as to where he had buried the money and the gun, and I said to him, "Why, you fool, why don't you tell where the money and the gun is; you've put it on the other follow now, and then they will let you out of here." "Yes," Stielow answered, "The big fellow (meaning Newton) told me I could go home Sunday, but I told a lie to what I said, and also told Newton, as neither he or I know anything about it."
